

Academia is one of the largest education providers in Switzerland. Over 1,200 committed teachers and motivated staff work in over 20 locations to help our customers reach their personal educational goals and make the most of their potential.

Would you like to be part of our team? Currently we are seeking:

German Teacher 25-30%

Workplace	Basel Academia International School is an English-speaking grammar school in Basel and Zurich preparing students for an international university entrance qualification. We follow the British International Curriculum (IGCSEs and A Levels). We are a multi-cultural, city center school who aims to provide academic excellence in a cosy, caring environment. Academia International School started in 2009 in Basel. We have grown steadily since then and opened another school in Zurich in 2019.
Start of employment	01.08.2021
Workload	25-30% (5 – 6 lessons per week)
Tasks	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Teaching the international UK curriculum• Preparation and follow-up as well as long-term planning and evaluation of lessons including coordination within the teaching team
Requirements	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• A recognized national teaching certification• Ability to build positive relationships with students, parents and other staff• Commitment to continual professional development• Passionate about teaching and learning. Committed to achieving high standards• Innovative mindset with excellent communication skills• Have an up-to-date police clearance
What makes us special	Academia stands for flexibility and a family working environment. This enables us to offer our employees a good work-life balance. We are an equal opportunities employer.
About our school	More information can be found on our website: www.academia-international.ch
Contact	Send your application by e-mail to Ms Stephanie Wimmer-Davison, Vice-Principal: personal@academia-group.ch

Let's go! Your Home of Learning